Re: United States of America v. Town of Oyster Bay and John Venditto,
Civil Action No. CV-14-2317 (ADS/ SIL)

Dear Magistrate Judge Locke:

Defendants the Town of Oyster Bay and Town of Oyster Bay Supervisor John Venditto respectfully submit this letter in support of the motion of the United States to stay this case. Defendants agree with Plaintiff that a stay of this case is appropriate because, on October 18, 2016, a grand jury in the Eastern District of New York issued an indictment against Supervisor Venditto, charging him with conspiracy to commit federal program bribery, federal program bribery, conspiracy to commit honest services wire fraud, honest services wire fraud and obstruction of justice. United States v. Mangano et al., Docket No. CR-16-540 (Azrack, J.). Defendants agree with the United States that, although the criminal charges differ from the allegations of discrimination in this civil action, both actions involve allegations placing in issue Mr. Venditto's conduct as Town of Oyster Bay Supervisor.

As this Court has recognized, courts have wide discretion to stay civil actions during the pendency of a criminal case where a stay serves the interests of justice. Crawford & Sons, Ltd. v. Besser, 298 F. Supp.2d 317, 319 (E.D.N.Y. 2004)(Spatt, J.)("It is well established that district courts have discretionary authority to stay a case when the interests of justice so require"). Defendants support Plaintiff's motion to stay this case because proceeding with the civil case concurrently with the criminal case would impose an extraordinary burden on Supervisor Venditto; the distraction necessarily entailed could compromise the Town's ability to mount an effective defense in the unrelated civil action; and Defendants are concerned about the ability to select an impartial jury in the civil case during the pendency of the entirely unrelated criminal case against Supervisor Venditto, who is a named defendant (in his official capacity) -- and, according to Plaintiff, a key witness -- in the civil action.

Accordingly, Defendants agree with the United States that “the interests of justice . . . require” that the Court stay this civil action until the conclusion of the unrelated criminal case against Supervisor Venditto.

Respectfully submitted,
